

QUOTATION SCRAMBLERS

1. Draw a box in the top center of the whiteboard.
2. Write the words that are in the quotation sentences in a scrambled fashion.
3. Capitalize the first letter of the first word to help them know where to begin.
4. Include any punctuation in the box as well.
5. The students then write the words in order to make a complete and correct quotation. In order to earn a point, the quotation has to have a Capital letter, spacing, correct spelling and punctuation.
6. Once they've completed their sentence, the students just hold up their white board.
7. Look at it. If there is one mistake, hold up 1 finger. If there are 2 mistakes, 2 fingers, 3 mistakes, 3 fingers, 4 mistakes, 4 fingers. If there are no mistakes, give them a thumbs up and they tally a point.
8. If they have a mistake they continue to correct the sentence until they get a thumbs up.
9. Once each pair has correctly written the sentence, move onto the next turn.

Pet On A Porch Quotations

"Hi," said a dog.

"Look at that!" I said.

"How are you?" he asked.

"Not good," said the boy.

"Did you hear that?" I asked.

"Are you okay?" said the cat.

"I'm okay," the girl answered.

"What did you say?" she asked.

"Where are you going?" the cat asked.

"Why are you crying?" the dog wondered.

"Is that cat talking," he thought to himself.

"You don't look like you're having a good day," said the cat.

"Did you just say something?" the girl asked in astonishment.

"Don't be so sad," a voice came from the neighbor's porch.

"Why do you look so sad today?" asked a cat sitting on the steps.
