

RHYME

Two words rhyme when their ending sounds are the same. Notice that the spelling might be different, as in gate and wait. As long as the ending sounds are the same, the words rhyme. For example, these groups of words rhyme:

Date, fate, gate, hate, late, mate, rate, state, trait, wait Billy, chilly, hilly, lily, silly

Writing Rhyme

For each word below, write 3 words that rhyme with it. Notice that the spelling might be different, but the sounds are still the same, like in the words gate and wait. The first one is done for you.

rice	dice, mice and nice
hour
funny

right
stream
greet
thought
