

FACTS AND OPINIONS

FACTS give information that can be proven true.

OPINIONS state what one person thinks. An opinion can be argued because someone else might think something different.

Look at these two examples about popsicles.

FACT: A popsicle will melt when it gets hot.

OPINION: A popsicle is the best snack!

Choose a word from this list or a word of your own. Write the word. Then, write one fact and one opinion about it.

Boxes

Lizards

Monkeys

Soccer

Farmers

Magic

Rockets

Video Games

WORD: _____

FACT: _____

OPINION: _____
